

Summer Piano Practice B i n g o

Tap practice your way through an entire piece.	Can you play a piece replacing all of the C's with rests? Now try with a new note!	Play the 5 penny game with a tough spot in your music.	Pay extra attention to dynamics.	Listen to someone else play your piece (Youtube, Spotify, etc)
Practice your piece in slow motion.	Practice the piece with your eyes on the music only.	Write down three questions your teacher would ask you about the piece.	Pick the hardest part of your piece and practice till it's the easiest.	Learn a new piece and surprise your teacher.
Memorize 3 pieces.	Set a goal for your practice. What will it take to accomplish it?	Free Space	Record yourself and fix mistakes you hear.	Practice 7 days in a row.
Practice your piece hands separately.	Play your piece with the metronome.	Call a friend and play a finished piece for them.	Read your lesson notes every time you practice.	Teach a friend how to play a song you've learned.
Warm up your fingers each time you practice.	Tidy up your piano - a clean space equals a clean mind.	Review old pieces from past books you've played.	Name all the notes in a piece before playing.	Watch others play! Attend a live recital or concert.

Score Study

B i n g o

Find all of the Fs.

Tap practice your way through the piece.

Find all of the Ds.

Highlight the dynamics.

Where do you hands
go to start?

Find all of the Gs.

Notice any rhythms or sections that repeat.

Identify the trickiest spot
in the music.

Find all of the Cs.

What is the style of the piece?

Set a goal for your practice.
What will it take to accomplish it?

Find all of the As.

Find all of the Bs.

Write down anything you need to ask about at your next lesson.

Find the time signature. How many beats are in a measure?

Find all of the Es.

Summer Music Activity

B i n g o

Read a book about music.

Listen to a genre of music that is new to you.

Attend a live concert.

Write your own music.

Watch a movie about music.

Teach a friend a song you've learned.

Visit a musical landmark.

Create a game that reviews the notes you have learned.

Learn what your parents listened to when they were kids.

Listen to classical music and draw a picture of what you hear.

Set a goal for your practice. What will it take to accomplish it?

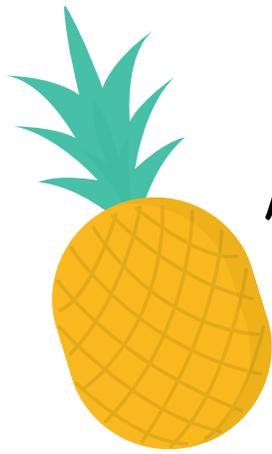

Tidy up your piano - a clean space equals a clean mind.

Review old pieces from past books you've played.

Call a friend and play a finished piece for them.

Read a book about a musician.

Listen to your favorite song and create artwork for what you hear.

A Summer Lesson Done Your Way

Lesson Book

Sight
Reading

Review Old Pieces

Improv

Warm-Up

Fun/Challenge
Piece

Theory/Worksheet

Play a Game

Composition